

Grant Park Orchestral Association
SEASONAL JOB OPPORTUNITY

Seasonal Support Staff: Chorus Ensembles
(Seasonal Position: begins on or about May 24, 2010 through August 21, 2010)

The Grant Park Orchestral Association (“GPOA”) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the Grant Park Music Festival’s (“GPMF”) programs and priorities. GPMF is the nation’s only remaining free, municipally supported, outdoor summer classical music series. GPMF is committed to providing free classical music to all Chicago residents and visitors. 2009 marked GPMF’s 75th Anniversary Season. Main stage concerts are held in the performance venues of Millennium Park’s acoustically superb Joan W. and Irving B. Harris Theater for Music and Dance, and the Frank Gehry-designed Jay Pritzker Pavilion, the most sophisticated outdoor concert venue of its kind in the United States.

This is an excellent opportunity for a person interested in arts management, or a related discipline.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Thorough knowledge of classical music and the ability to read orchestral scores is required. Previous experience as an ensemble librarian or arranger is ideal. Excellent organizational, interpersonal, computer, written and oral communication skills. Ability to work well with others, promote a positive image, pay close attention to details, and be punctual. Ability to multi-task, learn and follow directions, and present information in a courteous, professional, and welcoming manner. Ability to stand for long periods of time, lift at least 20 lbs, and work evenings and weekends with a flexible work schedule. Appropriate dress and footwear are required at all times, including uniform attire during concerts.

As of the date of the application, candidates must have reached their twentieth birthday. A firm commitment for the entire season is required. Position is assigned both indoors and outdoors. Position is full-time seasonal.
